RE: QuakeTrip Seismic Utility Shutdown Device

B.L. Harbert International, LLC purchased and installed the QuakeTrip device as part of a facility in an undisclosed location in the course of executing terms of a contract for the US Government.

As of the date of this writing, our client has made no warranty claims resulting from any malfunction of this device. Furthermore, if contractual requirements arise in the future for your product, BLHI will give full consideration to the QuakeTrip product.

Sincerely,
